

For Immediate Release

Contact: Lynda Mulley
HBLA CPAs, INC.
949-833-2815
Lynda@hbla.com

HBLA CPAS, INC. CEO VIC HAUSMANINGER
ELECTED TO LACN BOARD

IRVINE – October 28, 2010 -- Vic Hausmaninger, CEO of HBLA Certified Public Accountants, Inc., has been named to the board of the Lumber Association of California/Nevada (LACN) located in Folsom, California.

“I have been associated with the California/Nevada Lumber Association for a few years now and have come to appreciate its mission and enjoy providing services to the members of the organization. This opportunity to serve on their board is a real privilege that I look forward to.”

Vic has been CEO with HBLA Certified Public Accountants since 1985 when he found the firm. Before that, he worked with Arthur Andersen & Co., Deloitte & Touche as well as spending time working with Billy Graham. HBLA provides accounting, tax, audit, estate planning and consulting services to privately held companies and their owners in Southern California.

About LACN

LACN provides legislative and regulatory representation, education, training, professional development, communications and industry information to its membership composed of independent lumber and building materials dealers and suppliers in California and Nevada. For more information about their organization, visit www.lumberassociation.org.

About HBLA CPAs

Irvine-based HBLA CPAs celebrated their 25th year in business in July, 2010. Their focus is not only to deliver high quality accounting, audit, and tax advice – but to make businesses more valuable through providing proactive insights and recommendations to business owners that can positively affect day-to-day decision making and results. For more information about HBLA CPAs, Inc., visit www.hbla.com.

###